Cutting Taxes Energizes Our Free Market Economy

Idaho's taxes are among the highest in the west and Idaho families need relief. I've proudly earned a reputation as being a tax-hawk, earning an "A" rating from the National Taxpayers Union. I've voted against every bill that would raise your taxes and have fought for a fairer, flatter tax. I know eliminating loopholes in our tax code will allow us to slash our tax rates across the board and put more money back in your pocket. As a freshman in the Idaho Legislature I killed a gas tax increase because we weren't doing enough to give Idahoans tax relief.

As governor, I'll cut taxes, cut government spending and unleash Idaho's full economic potential.
