GOVERNOR

Honoring Veterans

Veterans have fought for our nation, now it's our solemn duty to fight for them.

As a Member of Congress, it's been my distinct honor to help thousands of Idaho's brave veterans. I've been able to help return millions of dollars in benefits to deserving veterans and have had the blessing of reuniting heroes with lost medals. I've also expanded my efforts to help veterans by sponsoring the Shauna Hill Post 9/11 Education Benefits Transferability Act, which passed through Congress and was signed into law by President Trump earlier this year. This bill ensures Idaho's veterans and their families get the education benefits they deserve.

As governor, you can count on me to protect the rights of veterans, and honor their sacrifices by continuing to fulfill our obligations to them.

“Veterans have fought for our nation, now it's our solemn duty to fight for them.”
