GOVERNOR

Protecting Idaho's Water

Water rights must be protected because water is the lifeblood of Idaho's economy. I'm committed to upholding Idaho's well-established water laws, opposing dam breaching, and maintaining Idaho's control over water.

My stellar record on water includes earning a 100% rating from the Idaho Water Users Association and co-sponsoring bills to reign in the EPA like the Waters of the United States Regulatory Overreach Protection Act. As governor, you can count on me to aggressively defend your water rights and Idaho's sovereignty over our water, free from federal interference.
