GOVERNOR

Supporting Life

Life is sacred and is worth fighting for. I will forever honor my mother who chose life for me when so many encouraged her not to have a baby as a single woman in the 1960's. But she not only gave me life, she also sacrificed everything in her life to give me a good life. Because of her sacrifice, now I have five beautiful children of my own and I cherish the uniqueness of each one.

I have been a staunch defender of pro-life causes my entire adult life and I have a 100% rating from the National Right to Life Committee and have been supported by Idaho pro-life groups like Idaho Chooses Life and Idaho Right to Life in the past for my perfect record of supporting legislation strengthening life. I am also proud to co-sponsor legislation like the Pain Capable Unborn Child Act, which bans abortions after 20 weeks. I have also consistently opposed public funding of pro-abortion groups like Planned Parenthood, this is why they and other anti-life groups like NARAL Pro-Choice America will vigorously oppose my campaign.

As governor, you can always count on me to protect the pre-born and ensure women have access to life affirming health clinics.

“Life is sacred and is worth fighting for.”
